

Computer Classes

The Friends of the Lake Elsinore Library are happy to offer FREE adult computer classes to the public.

These classes cover everything from learning basic computer skills, setting up email and understanding the Internet to learning Microsoft Office.

Please ask one of the Librarians for more information on dates, times and sign ups for the classes!